Breadstick Boutonniere

1. Take 2 light brown pipe cleaners and twist them tight together.
2. Cut the doubled up pipe cleaners into 3 pieces – repeat this step twice.
3. Take a doubled up 4inch by 4inch piece of tissue paper and glue the 6 breadsticks partially off of one corner of the tissue paper.
4. Once dry you can wrap the tissue paper around the breadsticks and glue it into place.
5. Take a 4 inch piece of ribbon – find the center of it – and glue it on to the back of the breadstick bundle – bring it around the front of the breadsticks and tie it into a bow
6. Use dark brown and yellow markers to add color and depth to the breadsticks

Mint Boutonniere

1. Cut out a 1.5-2 inch circle from cardboard
2. Take 5 Andes mints and glue them perpendicular around the edge of the cardboard – forming a star.
3. Repeat step 2 in a way that covers the gaps from the first layer of mints.
4. To form the inside of the flower take 3 Andes mint wrappers and glue the short end of them together in a row.
5. Fold the long side of the glued together wrappers in half
6. Once folded make small cuts along the entire length of one side of the wrapper
7. Take these wrappers and roll them into a circle.
8. Glue the circle of wrappers into the middle of the boutonniere
